

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 - AFRICA

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
Himalayan Cataract Project	Komfo Anokye Teaching Hospital (KATH)	Africa	Ghana	Health	$420,000	Funds to support the procurement of commodities (specialized ophthalmology equipment with an emphasis on teaching and other sub-specialties) at the KATH Eye Center,
Christian & Missionary Alliance	Koutiala Women's & Children's Hospital	Africa	Mali	Health	$431,610	The project funds the purchase of solar panels, batteries, inverters, and related equipment which will eliminate the frequent power outages or brownouts that are a risk for patients and allow the hospital to be more environmentally friendly and cost effective.
Horn of Africa Education Development Fund	Abaarso School of Science and Technology	Africa	Somalia	Education	$291,560	The Abaarso School will construct additional classrooms, student and teacher housing buildings, a standardized-test center and assembly hall, a girls' computer laboratory, improve physical security systems, and purchase necessary accompanying commodities to accommodate 7th and 8th grade students, provide more access to STEM opportunities for its female students, and improve school safety.
Nelson Mandela Children's Hospital-USA	Nelson Mandela Children's Hospital	Africa	South Africa	Health	$700,000	The Nelson Mandela Children's Hospital will build an Imaging Center for radiography, MRI, Ultrasound and CT.
Nurturing Minds, Inc.	Secondary Education for Girls Advancement (SEGA)	Africa	Tanzania	Education	$500,000	The project will increase SEGA's capacity to reach and accommodate vulnerable girls on its campus and improve the environmental and financial sustainability of the school. The project will install an underground rainwater tank, a water storage tower and solar pump, build housing for students and staff and expand the school's existing kitchen.
Lubuto Library Project, Inc.	Mthunzi Centre	Africa	Zambia	Education	$234,144	The project will fund the construction of a library and the purchase of 4,000 books and information technology resources, fostering children's rights and literacy-building in an area with extremely limited access to educational resources.

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 - ASIA

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
Himalayan Cataract Project	Tilganga Institute of Ophthalmology	Asia	Burma	Health	$400,000	Purchase of additional sub-specialty ophthalmic equipment primarily for the Yangon Eye Hospital which will enable newly trained Burmese doctors to provide high quality eye care services in country.
Salesian Missions	Don Bosco Technical School Kep	Asia	Cambodia	Education	$65,400	This award seeks to transform DBK into a handicap-accessible campus through the obtaining and installation of one elevator, construction of one walkway bridge, two wheelchair accessible ramps, and the renovation for three handicap-accessible bathrooms.
Project Hope	Shanghai Children's Medical Center	Asia	China	Health	$950,000	This award will increase institutional capacity through helping to purchase ultrasound and bypass machines for the hospital's pediatric cardiology inpatient unit to increase diagnosis precision and improve productivity.
Rambo Committee, Inc.	Christian Hospital Mungeli	Asia	India	Health	$600,000	ASHA funds will be used to purchase commodities to equip a new maternal and child health wing with a neonatal intensive care unit and a mobile health clinic to improve maternal and child healthcare in central India.
American Leprosy Missions	Nepal Leprosy Trust	Asia	Nepal	Health	$763,236	The Nepal Leprosy Trust will expand and modernize its outpatient department and footwear services as well as upgrade ancillary works to increase effectiveness and meet increasing service demands.
Vietnam Assistance for the Handicapped (VNAH)	University of Dong A	Asia	Vietnam	Education	$500,000	The Vietnam Assistance for the Handicapped will procure educational equipment for vocational training in electrical, nursing and hospitality management for Vietnamese, especially war victims and ethnic minority groups.

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 - EUROPE

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
American University of Armenia Corporation	American University of Armenia	Europe & Eurasia	Armenia	Education	$566,500	This project will establish an Innovation and Technology Incubation Center to empower students to create, collaborate, and venture beyond the demands of their degree program requirements as well as jump-start economic development through scalable, high-tech innovative entrepreneurship.
Sofia American Schools, Inc.	The American College of Sofia	Europe & Eurasia	Bulgaria	Education	$600,000	Funds for this project will be used for the construction of a modern and healthy kitchen and dining hall in the new campus center, which will also have a modern library and recreation space for students.
Friends of the American Board Schools in Turkey	SEV American Hospital	Europe & Eurasia	Turkey	Education	$372,000	SEV American Hospital will renovate the hospital's historical building which contains the region's first diabetes center, a clinic for internal diseases, eye care, diet and cardiology.
Friends of the American Board Schools in Turkey	Üsküdar American Academy	Europe & Eurasia	Turkey	Health	$250,000	This grant will purchase commodities to assist in the upgrade of the school's IT infrastructure so that the school will have a 1:1 student to faculty learning environment, an innovative student-centered teaching method.
The Trustees of Robert College of Istanbul	Robert College of Istanbul	Europe & Eurasia	Turkey	Education	$200,000	Robert College of Istanbul will purchase and construct a solar panel system to capture renewable energy, cutting fuel and electric costs and improving the school's environmental footprint.

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 – LATIN AMERICA & THE CARIBBEAN

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
Earth University Foundation	Earth University	Latin America & the Caribbean	Costa Rica	Education	$705,000	EARTH University will be strengthened with ASHA funding to renovate its electrical and water supply infrastructure to better align practices with its academic focus on environmentally conscious agriculture and natural resource management.
The U.S. Foundation of the University of the Valley of Guatemala	Universidad del Valle de Guatemala (UVG)	Latin America & the Caribbean	Guatemala	Education	$1,197,645	ASHA will support the university with funding to purchase innovative laboratory, technological, and outreach equipment to strengthen UVG's STEM education by enabling active and hands-on learning.
St. Boniface Haiti Foundation	St. Boniface Hospital	Latin America & the Caribbean	Haiti	Health	$500,000	Funds will help construct and equip a surgical, emergency medicine and trauma center, an 11-bed tuberculosis isolation ward and a 64-bed residence for staff, medical residents, and visiting medical professionals to meet growing demands of the hospital.
St. Luke Foundation for Haiti	Foundation St. Luc	Latin America & the Caribbean	Haiti	Health	$500,000	Funding will help construct and equip an education center, which will serve the medical professionals of St. Luc's Medical Mission and the greater medical community in Haiti.
Escuela Agrícola Panamericana Inc. (Zamorano)	Escuela Agrícola Panamericana (Zamorano)	Latin America & the Caribbean	Honduras	Education	$711,500	Funding will help improve the entire Zamorano campus water system by making water from the Santa Inés mountain, currently used for irrigation, available for human consumption as well.
American British Cowdray Hospital Foundation	American British Cowdray Medical Center	Latin America & the Caribbean	Mexico	Health	$400,000	The American British Cowdray Medical Center will expand the capacity and the impact of the ABC Medical Simulation Center by acquiring human simulator equipment to train physicians and nurses in specialized treatment procedures.

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 – MIDDLE EAST

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
Samaritan's Purse	Harpur Memorial Hospital	Middle East	Egypt	Education	$1,400,000	Harpur Memorial Hospital will begin the initial construction of a two-story outpatient building and procure commodities to equip the facility.
The Trustees of the American University in Cairo	American University in Cairo	Middle East	Egypt	Health	$500,000	Funds will equip the School of Humanities and Social Sciences and Department of the Arts at AUC with state-of-the-art technology for the production of innovative, contemporary work across arts in order to foster meaningful artistic exchange and experimentation that cultivates a commitment to tolerance and the freedom of expression.
American Committee for Shaare Zedek Hospital in Jerusalem, Inc.	Shaare Zedek Medical Center	Middle East	Israel	Education	$813,000	ASHA funds will be utilized to purchase pediatric imaging equipment for the in the Children's Facility of the Next Generation Building in order to provide expert medical care to children in Jerusalem.
American Friends of The Hebrew University	The Hebrew University of Jerusalem	Middle East	Israel	Health	$789,000	ASHA is providing support to purchase a correlative microscopy unit for the Agricultural Faculty to research plant adaptation in droughts, needed research given the scarcity of water and increasing environmental changes due to climate change.
Hadassah, The Women's Zionist Organization of America, Inc.	Hadassah Medical Organization	Middle East	Israel	Education	$750,000	ASHA funds will be used to support a new Breast Cancer Center at the Hadassah University Hospital Mt. Scopus campus through the acquisition of commodities.
The American Committee for the Weizmann Institute of Science	Feinberg Graduate School	Middle East	Israel	Health	$700,000	Grant funds would be used to purchase essential scientific equipment, including mass spectrometer, flow cytometer, data analysis computers, and scholarly publications to improve instructional and research activities in science education; energy and the environment (including agriculture); and genome-based biomedicine.
American University of Beirut/Debs Center	American University of Beirut	Middle East	Lebanon	Health	$1,700,000	Funding will procure commodities needed to launch new advanced programs of study in applied science as well as the renovation of a medical laboratory within AUB's Medical Center

USAID American Schools and Hospitals Abroad Awards for FY 2014 – MIDDLE EAST cont.

U.S. Organization	Overseas Institution	Region	Country	Sector	Funding Amount	Project Description
LAU Health Foundation	University Medical Center – Rizk Hospital	Middle East	Lebanon	Education	$1,300,000	This award will procure commodities to enhance a front-line, primary trauma care facility and train medical staff in order to treat patients with traumatic injuries caused by acts of political, sectarian or other violence.
American Community School Beirut	The American Community School at Beirut, Lebanon	Middle East	Lebanon	Education	$500,000	Funding will be used to purchase equipment and materials for the new high school science labs to provide hands-on STEM experiences for students.
Friends United Meeting	Ramallah Friends School	Middle East	West Bank	Education	$900,000	Funding will be used to furnish and equip the new Middle School Building, including its media center, gym, auditorium, and restoring the historic amphitheater; increasing energy efficiency by incorporating alternative energy sources and replacing window casements; and improving school safety and security systems.
Christian Brothers Conference	Bethlehem University	Middle East	West Bank	Education	$1,575,000	Funds will renovate the university's existing library and equip it with cutting-edge technology to transform the library into the intellectual hub of the university and the local community.