

Amendment 3 to APS-FFP-13-00001, dated June 4, 2013.

1. Question:

- On page 18, applicants are directed to submit a results framework and associated indicators. Can the framework be submitted as an annex?

2. Question:

- On page 13, part 2, applicants are instructed to include a map that identifies the target regions in which the applicant is proposing to work. Will USAID allow this map to be attached as an annex?

3. Question:

- On page 28(corrected to 18), number 4 part 2, applicants are directed to include an organization chart if appropriate. Will USAID allow this chart to be placed as an annex?

4. Question:

- On page 19, part B, applicants are directed to create an activity timeline. Will USAID allow the activity timeline to be placed as an annex?

5. Question:

- On Page 11, Section B: Content of Applications, the APS states that the Content of Applications is 15 pages maximum. Please confirm that the following sections can be included as annexes outside the 15-page limit:

1. Past Performance
2. Certifications/Representations
3. NICRA
4. Cost Narrative
5. Budget & 424s
6. Map
7. Results Framework
8. Subcontractor Letters of Commitment
9. Organization Chart
10. Commodity Procurement Table
11. Table of Contents
12. Cover Page
13. List of Acronyms

Answer:

All narrative elements identified within section IV., Submission Content Guidance, section B., Content of Applications, paragraphs 1., Program Overview Table, 2., Program Justification, 3., Program Design and

Description, and 4., Management and Logistics, are to be included within the 15 application limitation, unless it is explicitly stated within the paragraph that the information may be submitted as an annex.

The following required documents may be included as annexes outside of the 15 page limit:

1. Past Performance;
2. Certifications/Representations;
3. NICRA;
4. Budget Narrative;
5. Detailed Budget & SF-424s;
6. Map of Implementation Area;
7. Commodity Procurement Table; and
8. Activity Timeline.

The following documents may be included as annexes as applicable but are not mandatory unless otherwise stipulated in an amendment to the APS:

1. Results Framework;
2. Subcontractor Letters of Commitment;
3. Organization Chart;
4. Table of Contents;
5. Cover Page; and
6. List of Acronyms.